

Embracing The Edge: Excelling in the Uncomfortable for Unparalleled Achievement

An inside-out approach powered by practical research and empowers you people to rise to the occasion in challenging times. Using audience engagement and participation Stephen creates a customized and unforgettable experience that will inspire your audience to take immediate action in how they are showing up and face turbulent times.

This program is perfect for:

- Progressive Human Resources and organizational leaders responsible for building resilience, productivity, and engagement.
- Dynamic leaders and teams who are looking to upgrade their communication toolkit to accelerate productivity, manage stress effectively and recognize and enjoy more positive work and life moments.
- Dedicated association members, frontline employees and leaders constantly challenged and stressed by having to find creative solutions to accomplish goals with fewer resources.

The audience will leave with:

- A personalized framework to understand and align their values and efforts, enabling them to lead themselves and others through challenging times.
- The capability to confront the detractors of their “why me” and “why now” and embrace intentional accountability to themselves and their teams.
- An intentional practice to being fully present to consistently learn, impact positive change and develop meaningful relationships.
